

In this survey, you will be presented with several hypothetical text messages and responses to the messages. For each "text," categorize the corresponding responses as "good," "bad," or "neutral," and among each category, rank the responses according to how much you would like to receive each response.

Items
"I'm sorry you're going through that, but maybe you should try looking for extra work."	Good
"Everything will be solved. It's just a matter of time."
"It may be time to search for a new job or cut down on expenses."
"Would you like public assistance resources?"	Bad
"I know the feeling. Just keep grinding and you'll get past it."
"I'm sorry to hear that. Is there anything I can do to help?"
	Neutral

Items	Good	Bad	Neutral
"Maybe it's time to take a break. But, remember the end goal will be so worth all the stress."
"If you need help with anything, let me know."
"Have you looked into a new job?"
"Just try to relax and not think so much about your career goals."
"Don't worry, everything will be alright."
"Be cool."

Items	Good
"Everything will be alright. He will be home soon."
"That has to be rough. I hope you see him soon."
"Hoping for the best. Much respect to him for serving."
	Bad
"Pray and know that God has his arms around him and will protect him."
"I'm sure he is fine! Don't stress out."
"I'm sure your son is fine. Maybe you could write him a letter."
	Neutral

"My weight has been bothering me lately. I have lost a lot of weight so far, but I'm not losing weight fast enough. I just want to be a healthy weight as soon as possible."

Items

"I understand how you feel. It can be frustrating to try and lose weight but you're doing so great! I'm really proud of your progress so far. I'm always here for you if you need any support and encouragement."

"Just have some patience. Losing weight can take some time. You're doing great!"

"You're doing fine. Just keep at it."

"Just be patient and don't give up!"

"Slow and steady is what matters. As long as you are making progress you should be proud."

"I understand how stressful achieving this goal can be. You are doing a good job and should continue to work hard towards your goal weight. You will do great."

Good

Bad

Neutral

Powered by Qualtrics