

Default Question Block

In this survey, you will be presented with several hypothetical text messages from a friend. Please read each "text" and type below what you would respond to your friend in each scenario.

"My son started middle school. He doesn't know anything in this new state."

"Family drama has been a real pain in the neck."

"I have a lot of tests this week and I feel tired."

"I have been worried about paying my bills every month."

"I've been really stressed out recently by tight deadlines and heavy workloads at work."

"I have been stressed about getting a job. I fear that I'm not good enough."

"My pet is very sick. He has a tumor and it hurts him. I need to decide what to do and it's hard."
